

PTA ACTIVITIES

Casimir

Executive board of the Casimir Elementary School PTA met Thursday, Jan. 3, at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. R. R. Hobbs, 2403 W. 165th St.

Those present were school Principal John Dunworth, Mmes. R. Payne, T. Knighten, C. Long, L. B. Graham, B. Levin, M. Tracy, J. Begando, B. Cook, N. L. Boy, G. Stashak, D. Lynch and R. R. Hobbs.

It was decided to make two recommendations to the association at the January meeting: One recommendation is that a new coffeemaker be purchased, and the other that a money-raising project be held in the spring.

The board voted to have at the January meeting a copy of the resolution on fluoridation of public water supplies within the city of Torrance. Those persons in favor of this resolution will have an opportunity to sign it at that time.

Mrs. Boy and Mrs. Knighten reported that they had attended, representing Casimir PTA, the meeting called by Mayor Albert Isen regarding Torrance being chosen one of the "All-America" cities.

Mrs. Long, parent education chairman, announced a committee meeting will be held in Mr. Dunworth's office Thursday morning, Jan. 10, to draft plans for parent education classes.

Following the business meeting refreshments of cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Hobbs.

The January association meeting was held at the school cafeteria Wednesday, Jan. 9, at 7:30 p.m. The theme was "Fostering International Friendships" and a symposium was presented by foreign exchange students. Music was provided by the El Camino college choir.

The next board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. Knighten, 2434 W. 164th St., Wednesday, Jan. 30, at 7:30 p.m.

223rd Street

Dedication of 223rd Street School new building was held Jan. 8.

Los Angeles City School system officials, civic dignitaries were invited to participate in the 7:30 p.m. ceremony held at the school 1123 W. 223rd St.

Among officials participating were Mrs. Edith K. Stafford, Board of Education president; Mrs. Georgiana Hardy, Mrs. Ruth C. Cole and Dr. Hugh C. Willett, members of Los Angeles City Board of Education. Among other guests attending are Superintendent Ellis A. Jarvis, Deputy Superintendent Dr. Louise W. Seyler, Business Manager Schuyler C. Joyner, and Assistant Superintendent Mrs. Grace M. Dreier, in charge of the South elementary district.

Other guests were City Councilman John Gibson, Mayor Albert Isen, Rev. Patrick McGuinness, Nativity Catholic Church; Rev. Frederick Callahan, St. Philomena Catholic Church; Rev. Charles W. Little, Church of the Nazarene; Rev. C. M. Northrup, First Baptist Church; Rev. M. J. Zamorano, Community First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Laurence B. Martin, Tenth District PTA president; Mrs. William Shier, Lomita-San Pedro Council president; Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, Halldale School principal; Mrs. E. N. Reese, Halldale PTA president; Mrs. Minnie Q. Wallace, Carson School principal; Mrs. William Roller, Carson PTA president; Mrs. Ethel Bromely, 232nd St. School principal; and Mrs. Kenneth Maidson, 232nd St. president.

Hostesses were school personnel. Halldale mothersingers entertained.

Mrs. David P. Goolsby, 223rd St. PTA president, presided and welcomed persons attending the ceremony.

Carl Steele

This evening, Thursday, at 7:30 p.m. the Carl Steele PTA will have its annual Dental Health program. The speaker will be A. C. Hitchcock, chairman of the Torrance Dental Health Committee. Fifth graders will give a science demonstration. First grade mothers will act as hostesses.

At the last Carl Steele PTA meeting, Mrs. C. M. Christensen was elected to head the committee for the honorary life membership.

Assisting her will be Mrs. D. K. Crockett, Mrs. J. F. Hubacek, Mrs. G. T. Denny and Ed Ives. The association voted to incorporate the PTA.

Mrs. D. Coleman, ways and means chairman, discussed plans for a rummage sale in February.

Wearable clothes, dishes, toys, etc., will be items collected by the pick-up committee consisting of Mmes. D. K. Crockett, J. F. Hubacek, R. Mann, A. D. Hawkins and D. Coleman.

Mrs. L. M. Griffith was elected music chairman and invited mothers to join the Mothersingers' group.

Walteria

Mental health education will be discussed by the Walteria School PTA at the group's monthly meeting Thursday, Jan. 10, according to Mrs. Henry Fink president.

Dr. Earl Carnes of the psychology department at the University of Southern California and Dr. Warren Hamilton, director of special services for the Torrance Unified School District, are slated to talk at the 7:30 p.m. session in the school auditorium.

Third grade room mothers will be hostesses and there will be a classroom demonstration.

At the group's recent board meeting it was voted to endorse a plan for addition of fluorides to the city's water. The plan, regarded as a means of cutting down tooth decay, was advanced by the Torrance Dental Health Association. Membership ratification of the board endorsement is expected Thursday.

Mrs. John T. Gregory, welfare chairman, reported that the organization distributed five baskets of food to the needy during the Christmas season.

A paper and rag drive is being planned for March 6. The board session was conducted at the home of Mrs. Robert Bromm, health chairman.

186th Street

Miss Ruthita Shidler, school nurse, will be the featured speaker at the January meeting of the 186th Street School PTA. The meeting will be held on Thursday, Jan. 10, at 10 a.m. and is the only morning meeting scheduled during the year. Miss Shidler's topic will be "Working Together for Better Health." There will also be a skit presented by the children of the Health Club. Since health is a subject of vital importance to all parents, this meeting should be of interest to all.

The 186th Street School PTA is sponsoring a class on "Know Your Los Angeles Schools" and is issuing an invitation to all interested parties to attend. The class will be held every Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. in the school auditorium and will feature a prominent speaker on all phases of the Los Angeles school system. This is an excellent opportunity to answer all the questions that anyone may have on how our schools are run. Baby sitting care is provided for the parents of small children. The meetings will last about one and one-half hours each and will continue for seven weeks.
